Prelude
Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship: UMH 99, "My Tribute"

To God be the glory, to God be the glory,
To God be the glory for the things he has done.
With his blood he has saved me; with his power he has raised me;
To God be the glory for the things he has done.

Invocation: (in unison)

Faithful God, you draw near to us in our joy and in our grief, in our hope and in our despair. When we are bowed down, you raise us anew. Move among us this hour. Open our eyes, dispel our fears, and show us your glory, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Hymn of Preparation: UMH 529, "How Firm a Foundation"

Sacrament of Holy Baptism: Rubye Leigh Robinson (see insert)

Praise/Prayer Concerns, Pastoral Prayer, The Lord's Prayer

Hymn of Praise: UMH 367, "He Touched Me"

Gospel Lesson: Luke 7:11-17

Rev. Lesley Langford

Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, 'Do not weep.' Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, 'Young man, I say to you, rise!' The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, 'A great prophet has risen among us!' and 'God has looked favorably on his people!' This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Choral Anthem: "The Greatness of God"

Chancel Choir

Epistle Lesson: Romans 8:18:25

Rev. Derek Porter

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Morning Message: "Children of Glory"

Rev. Derek Porter

Hymn of Response: UMH 382, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord"

Benediction

Rev. Derek Porter

Closing Chorus:

O how He loves you and me. O how He loves you and me.
He gave His life, what more could He give?
O how He loves you; O how He loves me;
O how He loves you and me!
