Epistle Lesson: Acts 2:42-47 Rev. Lesley Langford
They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

*Hymn of Praise, UMH 175, Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee

Gospel Lesson: John 6:32-40

Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." "Sir," they said, "from now on give us this bread." Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all that he has given me, but raise them up at the last day. For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

Morning Message: "Church: Devoted to Bread" Rev. Sheila Crowe

* Hymn of Response: UMH 618, "Let Us Break Bread Together"

Celebration of Holy Communion, (see insert) Rev. Crowe, Rev. Langford
"Since the time of John Wesley, parishioners were encouraged to bring a small offering to the altar during Holy Communion. This offering is used to help the poor and disadvantaged in our community, who appeal to our congregation for emergency financial assistance. May each of us respond in faith as we are led and blessed in life."

A final thank you goes out to all the folks who gave a love offering for Derek, Tristan and Brendan; they were very surprised and pleased. Thank you all for making the send off a success.
